From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 18.

Vienna, Sept. 5.

LETTERS from Hungary of the 30th past confirm, that after the Reduction of Neitra Count Palfi having written two Letters to M. Ozkai one of the Principal Leaders of the Malecontents, that Gentleman took a Resolution to declare for his Imperial Majesty with his whole Regiment; and the 29th at Night he actually came to the Imperial Camp near Neitra, with 7 Troops; having sent his other 3 Troops to guard his Wife and his Baggage to the Castle of Bibersbourg belonging to Count Palfi; whence they were to repair to the Camp by the 3d Instant: His said Regiment consists in all of about 1000 effective Men. The 31st the Imperial Troops were to break up from the Neighbourhood of Neitra, and march along the Waag towards Newheusel; which we hope will speedily be reduc'd, the sooner because 'tis reported that Prince Ragotski is retir'd to the upper Hungary, and has carry'd with him as a Prisoner Count Berezeni, on whom he lays the Blame of running away with the Horse in the late Action with General Heister, and abandoning the Foot, to which the Malecontents impute their defeat. These Letters add, that the Treaty which is making under hand with the Hungarian General Berezedi is in such Forwardness, that 'tis every Day expected he will follow the Example of M. Ozkai, and that afterwards Count Caroli and M. Bothiani will do the like. The latter commands in Newheusel, so that we may recover that Place without Effusion of Blood. Field-Marshal-general Count Heister march'd the 31st of last Month from Raab, with 3 Regiments of Cavalry and 1200 Militia-Horse, to seek and fight Count Anthony Esterhasi.

From the Amst. Cour. and Leid. Gaz dated Sept. 18.

Vienna, Sept. 5. Letters from Arath of the 26th of last Month advise, that M. Tockely a Collonel of the Rascians was surpriz'd and taken Prisoner by some Hungarian Malecontents; that the Rascians sent 600 Men after them to rescue him, but too late, and he was carry'd to Prince Ragotski: However, these 600 Rascians having taken a good Booty, propose to purchase the Liberty of their Collonel. General Ozkai is not only come over to the Imperialists with his own Regiment, but caus'd three Places to be deliver'd up to them, viz. great Topelzau, Vrits, and Bonits: Some talk, that his Regiment will be sent to serve on the Rhine or in the Netherlands. Henry Baron Truchses, is made a General of Horse by the Emperour, on the Recommendation of Prince Eugene, and in Consideration of his long and faithful Services. Prince Ragotski is at present at Erla; and 'tis said is conveying his best Effects into Poland: Whither Count Berezeni would have sent his likewise; but 6000 Malecontents who have quitted Prince Ragotski, plunder'd the Waggons in which they were loaded, and carry'd off 300000 Florins in Money or Plate: The same Body of Men have possess'd themselves of Ungvar, both Town and Castle, and declar'd for the Emperour. We have Advice, that Count Caroli appearing before Clausenburg in Transilvania with Design to lay Siege to it, he was fallen upon by some of our Forces, who intirely defeated him and made him fly towards Zatmar with the Remains of his Troops: But of this we must wait a Confirmation.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Sept. 18.

Bern, Sept. 9. Letters from Milan of the 4th Instant assure us, that they had a Confirmation of the Submission of the Island of Sardinia to King Charles, and that Admiral Leake, having left there the Marquis de Cisuentes as Viceroy, was sail'd with the Fleet for Naples: In Cagliari 1300 Men were made Prisoners of War, of whom the Spaniards took on in the Service of King Charles, and the French were taken on board to be carried to Naples. The D. of Savoy having made himself Master of Fenestrelles, is preparing for some other Enterprize: His Troops have extended Contributions quite to Embrun: Within a Month's Time 1500 Men of the French Army employ'd against that Duke, have deserted. Notwithstanding the Pope is very urgent with the Roman Catholick Swiss Cantons for a Levy of 3000 Men in their Territories for his Service, they hitherto refuse their Consent.

From the Army of the Allies at Fretin, Sept. 13. We have Intelligence, that M. de Chamillard, who came on the 9th to the French Army, found the Dukes of Burgundy and Vendome of contrary Sentiments touching the Relief of the Siege of Lisle by a Battle with the Army of the Allies, the former giving his Opinion that the Attempt was practicable, and the other that it was utterly impracticable: M. de Chamillart, who 'tis said had Power, would not venture to decide the Question, but the 12th went Post for the Court of France, to make a Report to the King and send his Determination.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 18.

From the Camp of the Allies at Fretin, Sept. 15. At two a Clock this Morning, before Day, the Enemy decamp'd without Noise, and fil'd off on their Right. This makes us think they have receiv'd Orders from the Court of France conformable to the Sentiments of the Duke of Vendome, who 'tis said was against attacking us in our Intrenchments. We are order'd to hold our selves ready to march, and our Baggage is already loaded: We shall decamp to Morrow, and if the Enemy take their Way towards Pont d' Espieres, as they give out, we shall observe them narrowly. In the mean time the Siege goes forward; the two Lunettes which hinder'd the giving a general Assault on the Town, were taken last Night; and Grenadoes are distributed to the Soldiers, in Order to the Storm.

From the Leiden Courant, dated Sept. 19.

From the Camp before Lisle, Sept. 15. It was intended we should attack the Tenaille this Evening; but the Army under the Duke of Burgundy having mov'd to Day, 'tis believ'd this Attack will be deferr'd till to Morrow. Persons who have been at the Foot of the Wall of the Counterscarp, over against the Breach, give an account, that the Water in the Ditch is much fallen by the breaking of a Sluyce which kept it up; and that the Rubbish which has fallen down from the Breach, has fill'd up a considerable Part of the Ditch: So that after we are Masters of the Tenaille and Hornwork, we shall proceed to Storm the Town. Deserters report, that the Besieged have had 4000 Men kill'd or wounded; and that there are also in the Hospitals a great Number of Officers and Soldiers, who are fallen sick by overmuch Fatigue. The Enemy are continually making Signals, as well from the Town as the Castle, which we take for sufficient Evidence of their finding themselves in very bad Circumstances.

Brussels,

Bruſſels, Sept. 17. The 13th the Count de la Mothe came from Ghent to Aloſt, with 16 or 1800 Foot and 6 Squadrons of Horſe; and thence proceeded towards Enghien.
